LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26, 2019 – Joining volunteers around the world, more than five employees from Horvitz & Levy will take part in the Second Annual Global Day of Service, a worldwide initiative spearheaded by Ford Motor Company's Legal Alliance for Women (LAW), the company's professional organization focused on women in the legal practice. The coordinated global effort will assist organizations supporting the empowerment and well-being of women and girls in their respective communities. Horvitz & Levy, the nation's largest appellate law firm, is among more than 70 law firms around the world partnering with LAW to volunteer time and perform pro bono work on a day of community service scheduled for September 26th.

Horvitz & Levy will join several other firms to bring the Global Day of Service to Los Angeles and will be volunteering to assist the Downtown Women's Center, which serves women experiencing homelessness. The volunteers will be preparing sanitation bags for the organization.

Associate Emily Cuatto stated, "The homeless crisis has reached a critical point in Los Angeles and we are grateful Ford and its Legal Alliance for Women spearheads this effort to work with its outside counsel to take time to give back to the community. We look forward to providing support to the Downtown Women's Center, which is the only organization in Los Angeles with a focus on providing support to homeless women."

Ford LAW Global Day of Service continues this year with a singular vision to help community organizations that are assisting women and girls through educational, empowerment and support programs. Bringing together volunteers from more than eight countries, this day of service is a collective effort to give back to the communities Ford and its partners operate in.

"Through this day of service, we are aiming to marshal the collective efforts of our partners in the legal profession around world to give back to the community," said Beth Rose, Chief Compliance, Ethics, and Integrity Officer at Ford Motor Company and chairperson of Ford's Legal Alliance for Women. "The passion we share in advocating for and serving our communities extends beyond this one day. It is part of who we are as individuals and drives our community service year round."
